What are benefits?

You can apply for money from the Government.

Benefits

This money is called a benefit.

This document tells you the benefits that you might receive.

Personal Independence payment (PIP)

Department
for Work &
Pensions

Personal Independence payment (PIP).

This is money paid to you
by the Department for work and pensions (DWP).

DWP are part of the British government.

This money helps you be more independent.

Your parent or carer will have got this benefit for you before. You can ask them about it.

Personal Independence payment (PIP)

PIP can pay for different things like:

Remind Me ...

Reminding you to do things.

Support with cooking.

Support keeping you safe.

Going out or walking.

A vehicle if you need it.

Personal Independence payment (PIP)

Some people still get Disability Living Allowance, this will change to PIP soon.

You will be told when it is changing to PIP so do not worry.

Universal Credit (UC)

Universal Credit (UC)

This helps with your daily living costs.

Department
for Work &
Pensions

It is paid to you by the Department for work and pensions.

It is usually paid when you leave college.

Daily living costs are things like food, clothes, and gas and electric.

Universal Credit (UC)

It can be paid if you work.

It can also be paid if you do not work.

Universal Credit

If you get PIP, you may get more Universal Credit.

It can also help pay for housing costs such as rent.

Employment and Support Allowance (income related)

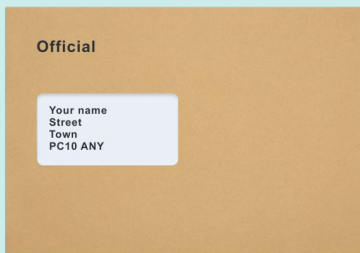

Employment and Support Allowance

Some people may still get this benefit.

Universal Credit

Universal Credit has replaced it, so you do not need to apply for this.

You will be told if you need to change to Universal Credit.

You do not have to do anything.

Dentist and prescription charges and eyesight tests

Dentist and prescription charges and eyesight tests

If you are getting certain benefits, you will get help with these things.

You should not have to pay for your tablets or medicine.

You can have dental check ups or treatment for free.

You will be able to have your eyes checked for free and get cheaper glasses.
